1 The Cemetery Club

by Ivan Menchell

Directed by Sheri Posey

October 2-18

Three Jewish widows meet once a month for tea before going to visit their husband's graves. When a new man enters their lives, the three unique women have very different reactions to him. Life goes on, and hope springs eternal in this nostalgic comedy.

2 Katharine Hepburn's Brownies

by Joan Albarella

Directed by Robert Priest

November 6-22

Ripped from local headlines, this murder mystery will keep you guessing. Local author has created a fact-based drama of a plastic surgeon who, having lost his medical license due to criminal medical malpractice, seeks other ways to support his lavish lifestyle.

3 The Job Musical

Written and Directed by

Sam Fadel

March 5 - March 21

A Biblical musical drama of the Book of Job that chronicles a segment in the life of Job, "the greatest man in all the East," whose family and possessions were taken from him and who was forced to endure immense suffering. The story asks the age-old question, "Why do the good suffer?"

4 Apartment #9

Written and Directed by

Linda Silvestri

May 7-23

In her eternal quest for love, Lisa finds Paul who seems to fit the bill in every possible way – except that he's so secretive! Why is this mystery man so alluring to her? And why can't she even get to see his apartment? This comedy explores the ups and downs, and mysteries, of the dating world.
